

Orange County Horse Council to Host NYS Horse Council Annual September Meeting

By: Debbie Schiraldi, OCHC

Orange County Horse Council is pleased to host the Annual 2010 Meeting for New York State Horse Council from September 10-12 in Goshen, NY at the Historic Track/Hall of Fame of the Trotter. All members of NYS Horse Council are invited. Every year the event is held at a different host Council. Members can enjoy the local flavor the areas offer by participating in events host councils provide across New York State.

Orange County Horse Council is planning a guided Trail Ride in Stewart State Forest on Friday with a barbeque supper following the tour of our own beautiful Hudson Valley. Saturday will be a day of guest speakers, meetings, catered dinner, and entertainment. Sunday horsemen will be invited to a Playday/Gymkhana sponsored by G&M Riding Club, one of NY States oldest riding clubs at Orange County Park, in Montgomery. Overnight accommodations are available for horses and riders, so that guests to the area can enjoy all the equine activities the council has to offer.
